

FOLDING ARM AWNING PR 220

The PR 220 is a compact awning featuring an aluminium extruded hood to enclose the protective fabric. It effectively combines contemporary design, ease of use and protection in one affordable and versatile package. Perfect for use on a porch or near a swimming pool, the PR 220 is the ultimate in ease of use, with remote operation featuring a wind-sun sensor which automatically regulates the awning depending on sunlight and wind speed.
